

About Butch

Butch English has been playing amateur golf since 1990 in the Carolina Golf Association and the Carolinas PGA. In his career, he has won three regular Men's Club Championships and six Senior Club Championships at the Peninsula Golf Club in Cornelius, NC. Not only does Butch have a passion for playing golf, he has a passion for coaching. He is a former high school (E.E. Smith High School) and college basketball coach (Lafayette Junior College/Methodist University). He is also NFHS certified coach who currently coaches Pine Lake Prep High School (Mooresville, NC) where he led the team to the Conference Championship in 2019. In addition, he built teams as an executive at 3M (1980-84) and State Farm (1985-2013). Butch's goal as a golf instructor is to help others realize their potential in golf. Butch currently resides in Cornelius, NC.
