

Jeff Joyce
Staff Instructor
Jay Reid School of Golf

Jeff Joyce has been around the game of golf his entire life. His teaching philosophy centers around building a strong foundation and understanding of the golf swing fundamentals tailored to fit each individual's style. Through his experience as a player and coach, he knows that the game of golf is more than proper swing mechanics. It's about reducing the margin of error by developing consistency through implementing the right approach. Learn the techniques that Jeff uses to PLAY BETTER GOLF.

Before moving to Huntersville in the Fall of 2020, he spent 50+ years working and living in Columbus, Ohio. The past four years serving as the Assistant Golf Professional at Safari Golf Club which is owned and operated by the Columbus Zoo & Aquarium. Jeff has a passion for working and developing junior players. He was a Head Golf Coach at Dublin Jerome High School which is one of the elite golf programs in the State of Ohio. Dublin Jerome has won 9 Division-1 State Championships, placed second (3 times) and third (2 times) in the past 15 years. Many of the players he has coached have continued playing in college at The Ohio State University, University of Dayton, Xavier, Miami and Wittenberg to name a few.

Jeff started playing golf at a very early age, even before he knew which hand was his left or right. As a junior player, he qualified and played in the "Junior World Championship" held at Torrey Pines in San Diego, CA. He played golf in high school at Upper Arlington, home of Jack Nicklaus and the Golden Bears. In college, he played for Eastern Kentucky University which at the time was nationally-ranked and Ohio Valley Conference Champions.
