

TIFFANY ANSELMANT

LPGA CLASS A PROFESSIONAL

Tiffany Anselment has 25 years of experience doing what she loves...teaching and playing the game of golf! She is a Class A member of the LPGA, the world's leading organization for golf teaching professionals. Tiffany is an alum and proud member of the Providence Day School Charger Hall of Fame. She attended UNC-Greensboro where she graduated with a degree in Exercise and Sport Science Teacher Education, specializing in the Motor Learning and Motor Development of adults and children.

Participating on the UNCG women's golf team, and lettering all 4 years, Tiffany is an accomplished player and currently is still active in competing. You will be learning from one of the best in the industry. She teaches all aspects of the game and is a master of the short game.

My philosophy is one that recognizes that each individual is unique and, therefore, should receive instruction that is tailored to his or her specific needs and goals. I am more than just a swing coach; I am a teacher of the game of golf. I work to build a solid foundation based on the student's learning style, which enables them to better understand their swing and improve more quickly. Together we will develop a plan of action that may include video analysis, on course instruction, course management, and effective practice plan. Creating a fun, relaxed environment for the student to learn and develop their game is key. I am passionate about the game of golf and look forward to sharing that excitement with students looking to improve their golf game. TREAT YOURSELF TO AN EXTRAORDINARY GOLF EXPERIENCE.
